72nd Season

Established in 1946, Spokane Children's Theatre, is Spokane's oldest theatre organization. Specializing in shows appropriate for children of all ages, Spokane Children's Theatre (SCT) has been a staple of the Spokane community for 71 years!

As a 501(c)3 non-profit, SCT prides itself on being a debt free organization, producing plays and musicals to entertain children and adults in our community and giving actors, young and old, a chance to shine in the spotlight. In our final show of our 71st season, The Jungle Book, our youngest actor was six and our oldest was 70.

As you can imagine the average cost to produce a show can be quite large and ticket prices help defray these costs, but they don't cover everything. We keep our ticket prices low so that any family in Spokane may enjoy a night out at the theatre. We also believe it is important to give back to our children, so at every single one of our shows, an audience member wins a child's season ticket.

To continue to grow and produce high quality shows for the children and families in our community, SCT needs your support. We are asking your company to consider becoming a sponsor of Spokane Children's Theatre. Attached is information regarding sponsorship, ranging from advertising in our programs to being a Season Sponsor of Spokane Children's Theatre 72nd Season! We are only three years from our 75th Anniversary, and it is going to be BIG! And we would like to partner with you now!

On behalf of the actors, singers, dancers, and audience members of Spokane Children's Theatre, thank you for considering our request. It is community members like you that will enable Spokane Children's Theatre to provide quality performance to the Spokane community for another 71 years!

Warm Regards,
